

Niagara Regional Housing

- Are you worried about being evicted from your home?
- Are you having problems getting along with your landlord or neighbours?
- Are you experiencing stress that's affecting your physical and/or mental health?

If you answered yes to any of the questions above, your Community Programs Coordinator (CPC) may be able to help!

Flip the page to find out more...

To contact your CPC, call 905-682-9201 ext. 3968

The CPC for Housing Providers works with individuals and households on a voluntary basis to:

- help tenants/members avoid eviction by working with them to resolve the issues that have caused the risk of eviction
- provide supports and referrals to help improve lives (e.g. support for aging in place, mental health/addiction counselling, parenting classes, etc.)
- mediate social issues between neighbours
- and more...

Who is eligible?

- tenants/members of Housing Providers in Niagara (Non-Profits, Cooperatives, Rent Supplement Landlords)

Who can refer?

Tenants/members can refer themselves or Housing Providers can refer a tenant/member by:

- calling the CPC (905-682-9201 ext. 3968)
OR
- filling out the referral form located at www.nrh.ca/tenants/default.shtml#coop (for tenants/members)
www.nrh.ca/providers/default.shtml (for Housing Providers)
(tenants/members can also ask their landlord for this form)

What happens next?

- the CPC will contact the tenant/member to set up a time to meet or speak on the phone
